

Very
The Fairy Princess
Here Comes the Flower Girl!

by Julie Andrews & Emma Walton Hamilton

Illustrated by Christine Davenier

Little, Brown and Company
New York Boston

Hi! I'm Geraldine.
I'm a fairy princess.
Hardly anyone believes me,
but I have a sparkly feeling inside that tells me it's TRUE.

I spend most of my time spreading my sparkle however I can.
For instance, I always conduct myself in a princess-ly fashion.
(My wings and crown help, of course.)

I add a creative touch to everything I do, and I try to make someone smile at least once a day.
(Fairy princesses care a LOT about the happiness of their people.)

Today I got some FANTASTIC news!
My aunt Sue is getting married to Mr. Flanigan, the fire chief. And guess what?
I get to be their flower girl! PERFECT!
I can just picture myself walking down the aisle with Aunt Sue in her long white wedding dress, with the organ music playing and HUNDREDS of people smiling all around us!

